When we live for ourselves

- According to our very nature, we were made for God and His love
- We are to be filled with his Goodness, which is self-giving by its very nature, thus we automatically desire to give
- Like a fountain (The Fifth Element)
- But...
- In our culture, it is very easy to get things instantly
- We are constantly doing things for ourselves, filling ourselves up with food, tv, music, computers, etc
- As we shovel these things in, we don't leave room for God's love
- We are like clogged drains
- Suicide rates go up, divorce goes up, school shootings, etc...

Can the world change??

- It's the month of remembrance—pray a rosary for those who died. If you visit the cemetery the first 8 days of November and pray The Creed, Our

Father, Hail Mary, Glory be at the grave, the deceased receives a plenary indulgence

- We just have to make a decision to do the work of God
