

Keysis Outline
11-05-08

Words of the Week and then Creed Part III

- Words of the week are Cogito Ergo Sum
- “He descended into Hell and on the third day rose again...”
- Acts 3:15, Romans 8:11(mortal bodies), 1 Cor. 15:20 (first fruits harvest), Hebrews 13:20, Ephesians 4:9 (He ascended)
- Significance of 3 days – Now ultimately God could have chose any number He wanted and went with that number. The significance of the number 3 signifies completeness or divine significance. (i.e. The Holy Trinity, the three sons of Cronos [Zeus, Poseidon, and Hades]) Interesting Note: Numerology has always been a significant part of our experience as humans. While it does not necessarily “define” our beliefs, it does have a tendency to reach across boundaries and bring about a help in smoother transitions and changes in our lives. (i.e. Math is the universal language.)

Small Group Breakouts

- Open with prayer (Hopefully one of the youth if they will.)
- “If you could be any animal in nature, what would it be?”
- Why was it significant for Jesus to die and be raised from the dead? (To show that Jesus truly assumed our human nature and was like us in all things but sin and to show the mighty power of God)
- Why is the number 3 significant to His rising? (think about divine completion from the talk)
- What are some examples that you can bring up that signify the experience of numerology in your own lives? (days of the week (7 “The perfect number”, 10 being the number for the perfect set of laws (Ten Commandments), 4 being the completion of nature (seasons) (North South East and West) etc. There are many of these just have the youth come up with some of their own if they can.)
- Jesus chose to become like us in all things but sin and that says awesome things about our God

Announcements

- Paperwork / Registration
- High School Advent Celebration on December 13th, 2008 at TBA
- Java with Abba
- “Questions / Comments” Box is now outside my door for those wishing to remain anonymous
- Desert Auction at the Parish supper on November 6th, 2008 (TOMORROW NIGHT!!!)